

IP018 – School Bus Routes

1. Intention

To provide advice to the Public Transport Authority of the suitability of school bus routes for their consideration

2. Scope

This policy applies throughout the district.

3. Statement

Many enquiries are made by ratepayers to Shire officers requesting erection of signage and placement of bus embayments on Shire road networks. Bus routes are the responsibility of the Public Transport Authority, who may act on technical advice from the appropriate shire representative. This policy formalises this process.

The Director Infrastructure Services is authorised by Council to provide the Public Transport Authority with technical assessment on the suitability of roads to be incorporated into school bus routes within the Shire of Waroona. Requests to do so shall be made in writing.
